

PHONE2ACTION DIGEST

Phone2Action Digest V¹

We're seeing a tremendous outpouring of advocacy and activity here at Phone2Action. We've put together a quick digest newsletter to show you what we're seeing, and provide you valuable information during this period of crisis.

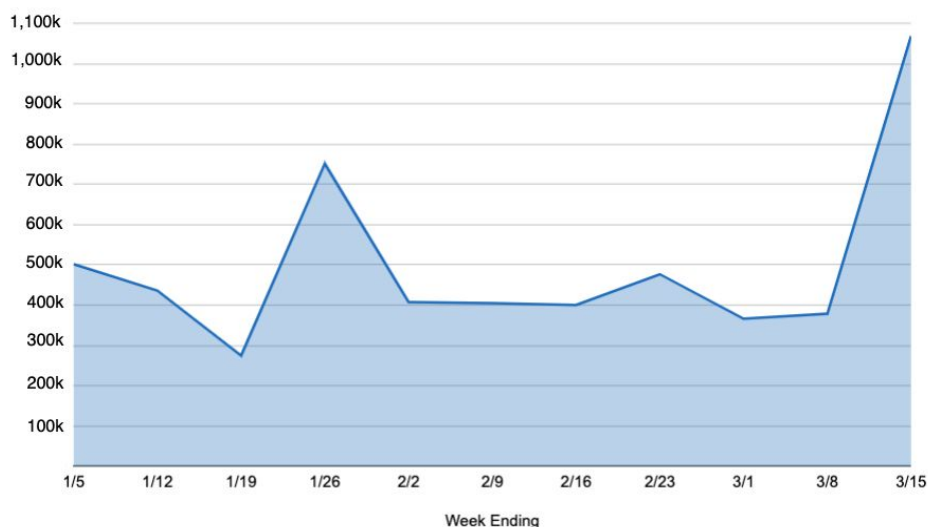

Welcome to Phone2Action's COVID-19 Digest!

The COVID-19 pandemic is deeply affecting our communities. Nonprofits, member organizations, and corporations are taking a leadership role in mobilizing their stakeholders and members. These efforts are creating a surge of activism nationwide in ways we've never seen before. We want to share insights and resources with you. If you do not want to receive this digest, please unsubscribe at the bottom.

What We're Seeing: CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT DURING THE CRISIS

In the past week, advocates sent over 1 million messages to elected officials across the country. Over 300,000 of these advocates were new to our customers' campaigns.

FEATURED CAMPAIGNS

Successful and innovative advocacy campaigns to guide and inspire you:

Registered Nurses are on the frontlines of this outbreak. The American Nurses Association is organizing nationwide and advocating Personal Protective Equipment (PPE). See ANA's campaign at <https://p2a.co/gSN2cu>

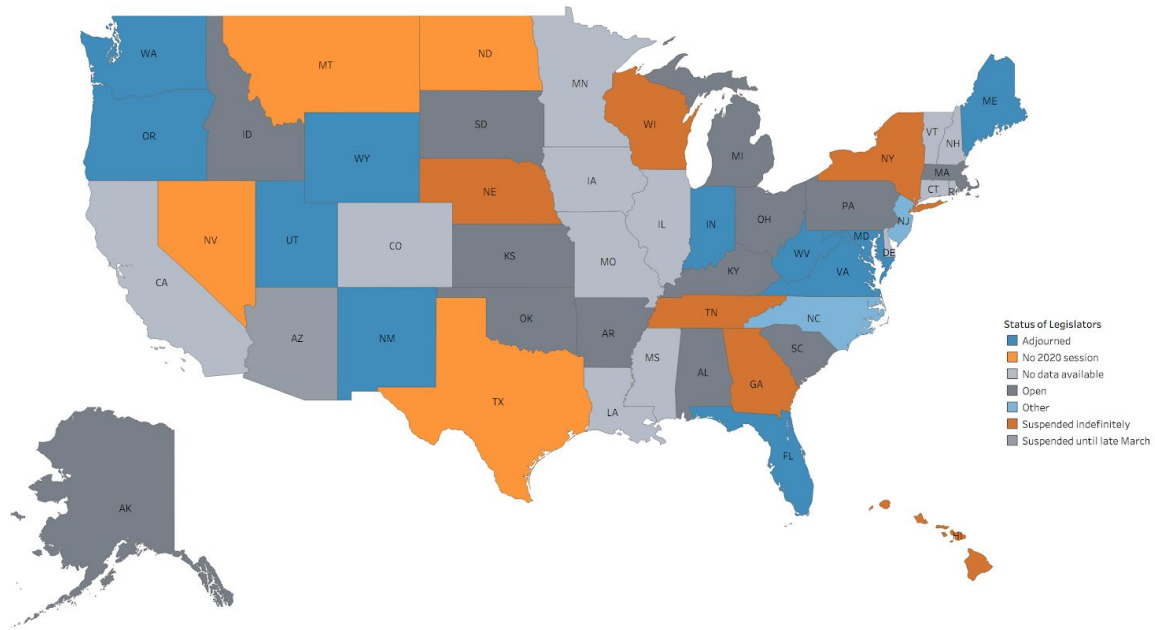

Economic forecasts indicate that restaurants and the foodservice industry could sustain $225 billion in losses and eliminate 5-7 million jobs over the next three months. To support restaurant workers the National Restaurant Association is working for #restaurantrecovery. See Restaurant's campaign at <https://actnow.io/recovery>

RESOURCES

Here are important resources and information we've collected to guide you and your team. Send us the valuable resources you're relying on and we'll include in our next update!

State Legislature Closures

COVID-19 has led to a number of state legislatures altering and suspending their sessions. Phone2Action is still delivering messages successfully to all offices.
